Construction Engineering & Management
The MSCE Process
Revised: August 2012
Student selects permanent Advisor in Fall Semester

Advisor and Student discuss exit options: Coursework Only, Project and Report, Research and Thesis

Student files a Plan of Study at the 12hr mark, typically in Spring Semester

- Coursework Only
  - 30+0
- Project and Report
  - 27+3
- Research and Thesis
  - 24+6
Coursework Only

→ Advisor assigns Final Exam on the last semester

→ Student produces deliverables from Final Exam

→ Student request the Graduate School to be admitted to Final Exam with at least a 2-week notice

→ Student delivers Final Exam to Committee with at least a 2-week notice

→ Student Defense
Project and Report

Advisor and Student decide on subject and scope

Student writes P&R Proposal

Student delivers Proposal to Committee with at least a 1-week notice

Student Defends Proposal

Advisor and Student decide on subject and scope of Final Exam

Student executes P&R and Final Exam

Student request the Graduate School to be admitted to Final Exam with at least a 2-week notice

Student delivers P&R and Final Exam to Committee with at least a 2-week notice

Student Defense
Research and Thesis

Advisor and Student decide on subject and scope

Student writes Thesis Proposal

Student delivers Proposal to Committee with at least a 1-week notice

Student Defends Proposal

Student executes research and writes thesis

Student delivers thesis to committee with at least a 1.5-week notice

Student Pre-Defense

Student request the Graduate School to be admitted to Final Exam with at least a 2-week notice

Student delivers Thesis to Committee with at least a 2-week notice

Student Defense